Put on the “Freshman 15” with Mr. Mailbag

Dear Mr. Mailbag,
 I noticed that you wear these really cool glasses from time-to-time. You must be a smart person. Do you find that you are even smarter when you wear your lunettes? I’m about to start my Freshman year of college and I’m considering wearing glasses so the chicks will dig me and the profs will think I’m smart. Maybe one day I’ll be as smart as you.
 You’re my hero,
 College Graduate Class of 2015

*Dear Young Scholar,
 First of all, let’s not get ahead of ourselves with that aggressive graduation date. Here’s some free advice...stay in school for a good 6-10 years...I did and look at how successful I am today!*

As for the specs, yes they make me smarter. I know that seems oxymoronic (look it up) because you’re wondering how a MENSA like me can be even smarter...but it’s just the way it is.

As for what this has to do with HD Homes...keep reading Mr. Mailbag and checking out our website (www.hdhomestexas.com) while eating Ramen noodles and drinking adult beverages at the age of 18 (Mr. Mailbag does not condone this behavior...he likes to eat Fuyyuns instead) and hopefully by the time you graduate you’ll be making a smart move and purchasing a brand new HD Home in an area of your choice. Stay in touch and don’t believe all you learn in college.

Dear Mr. Mailbag,
 HELP! I recently bought my 10 children their school supplies. I don’t have any room in my current house to store all the pens, paper, rulers and rubber cement. Any suggestions?
 Appreciate it,
 Stuffed

*Dear Pack Rat,
 Is there anything better than rubber cement? I mean, what exactly is its purpose? It’s not really strong glue and yet it’s really sticky and stringy...it sure smells good though.*

Your problem regarding inadequate closet space is one I hear often. You need more storage space in your home...one problem with the old homes in the Ft. Worth Cultural District is that they don’t have large closets for your stuff.

*HD Homes is proudly building charming homes in the Cultural District that look great, are at an amazing price and have tons of walk-in closets and storage spaces. You can store all the glue sticks, paper clips and Trapper-Keepers you and your children need.
 Call 817-737-0101 to speak with a sales consultant about the right home for all your storage needs.*

Greetings Mr. Mailbag,
 I recently saw that HD Homes has already surpassed the total number of sales from 2010 by July 2011. Congratulations! What’s your secret for success and would you ever consider being on my Cabinet?
 Thanks,
 Barry O.

Dear Prez with 30% approval rate and falling, You are correct! HD Homes surpassed our 2010 total home sales number in July 2011 and we’re going strong! We’re going to smash our goals and records.

The keys to our success are simple: 1) paying attention to the market 2) understanding what buyers want 3) providing a great product in great locations 4) a great group of people who represent HD Homes well and 5) having a blast while we’re doing it!

As for your offer of a Cabinet position...while I get that you’re trying to enlarge the government and want 50% of Americans to be on the government’s payroll so that no one will ever vote for a politician that ever utters the words: “reduce, shrink, responsibility, cut-back or fiscal sanity,” Mr. Mailbag is a Texas Boy...I’m not sure he’d enjoy living in Washington D.C. all that much...but that’s for asking. See, you do know how to make a smart move.
